

UNISON NW Courses for Schools Staff

February 2021

Supporting Children Returning to School with Covid Rules, 15th Feb 2021, 10am—12pm

In preparation for returning to school after half term, UNISON have put together this session for schools staff to be able to support children returning to school environment and readjusting to back to attending school with the extra Covid regulations. In this session you will:

- Understand how to prevent and manage challenging behaviour
- Explore and identify methods for defining and keeping personal boundaries
- Identify ways of engaging children in conversations about Covid
- Understand how to recognise and respond effectively to pupils presenting challenging behaviour
- To examine the reasons why young people can display challenging behaviour

Obviously, the outcomes to this course may change a little as we get closer to the time and understand how the Coronavirus situation has changed.

This session is run by Jez Brigham from 2Resolve training. Jez has worked in school settings with children and adults with emotional and behavioural issues and delivers training to schools staff on supporting children.
